

Association Bernard Gregory

where PhDs and companies meet

Your trusted partner for promoting the doctorate, research and innovation:

let's build tomorrow's initiatives together

Candidates, recruiters

ABG advertises opportunities (internships, PhD theses, jobs) to support the employment of scientists and boost recruiters' visibility.

Higher education, companies, local authorities, public administrations

ABG brings together and leads an active network of partners committed to the doctorate.

Master's students, PhD candidates, PhD holders, senior researchers

ABG supports you with training and coaching to help you advance your career.

Learn more and join our network:
www.abg.asso.fr – abg@abg.asso.fr

The association

Since 1980, Association Bernard Gregory (ABG) has been working to bring the academic and socio-economic worlds closer together by promoting the doctorate and supporting both the career development of PhD holders and the innovation capacity of companies.

ABG's purpose is to connect all professionals who share common interests in research, development and innovation.

Commitment
Kindness
Creativity
Integrity
Synergy

A team at your service

Our missions

Training & support

- Coaching and training, from Master's level to senior researchers
- Career development, research supervision and management

Employment & recruitment support

- Job offers
- CV database
- Recruitment speed-meetings and webinars

Information

- Website, newsletters
- LinkedIn group
- Stands and conferences at career events

Europe & international

- International and intersectoral mobility, intercultural support
- Support for European consortia and projects
- Cooperation with the international ecosystem & EURAXESS

Public-interest mission supported by the French Ministry of Higher Education, Research and Space (MESRE)